

Assistive
Technology
Conference
of New England

November 30th &
December 1st
Crowne Plaza Hotel
Warwick, Rhode Island
Hosted by: TechACCESS

The Assistive Technology Conference of New England

Full Day Pre-Conference Workshops, Thursday November 30th

Conference, Exhibitor Hall and Expo, Friday December 1st

Early Bird Registration Available until September 30th, 2017

43 Presentations over 2 days include:

AAC and Behavior-Based Programs: Can we be Friends? Working with ABA Based Programs to Increase AAC Implementation

Executive Functioning Apps for Educators

Inclusive Technologies on a Budget

Executive Functioning and Technology in the Classroom

AT for People with Psychiatric Disabilities

AT and The ADA: Where is AT Required?

Developing Paraprofessional Skills in AT

Yoga and Assistive Technology: Wait, What?

Meltdowns, Movement, Anxiety & Agita: Can AT Help?

Reading and Writing with Google Chrome

Utilizing Smart Technology to Combat Social Isolation for the Aging in Place Community

AND MANY MORE!

Bringing ACCESS to Life Expo:

The Expo offers conference attendees an opportunity to see products, services, opportunities and resources available to people with disabilities in RI and the northeast.

Exhibitors' Hall

TechACCESS
Scanning Pens, Inc.
RI Materials Access Center
Crick Software, Inc.
Abiliatec
Rhode Island Relay
Prentke Romich
Adaptive Driving Program
RAZ Mobility
Mobility Equipment Recyclers
VFO
School Health
Westminster Technologies, Inc
Kurzweil Education
Benetech
Eschenbach Optik
...and more to come

Sponsors

HMEA
RIDE
ATAP
Scanning Pens, Inc.
AAC Institute

www.assistivetechconference.com